

Adopting a Cabin

Purpose: The purpose of adopting a cabin is to partner with the Presbyterian Camp on Okoboji and assist with the financial cost of the maintenance and upkeep of the cabin.

The adopting church or group agrees to:

- 1) Annually discuss the needs of the cabin with the Executive Director or Site Manager and set goals for the improvement of the cabin.
- 2) Supply the necessary funds for repairs and upkeep of the cabin.
- 3) Supply the labor necessary for various projects as deemed necessary by the Site Manager.
- 4) Discuss anything added to or removed from the cabin with the Executive Director or Site Manager prior to the addition or removal.

Items that may be included in the agreement are:

Mattresses and covers
Siding
Windows
Furnace/Air Conditioning
Roof
Plumbing
Floor Covering
Window Coverings
Furniture
Bunk Beds

This is an on-going commitment and continues until the adopting church or group terminates the relationship in writing.
