REDISCOVERING KOINONIA

NOVEMBER 1 - 3, 2021

"Koinonia is a word frequently used in the New Testament to refer to the peculiar kind of communion Christians have with God and with one another in Christ. Paul frequently uses it when writing of Christians who share in God's grace, the Gospel, and the promise of the Holy Spirit."

Dave & Sue Feltman
Retreat Leaders

A fall retreat at Lakeshore
Center Okoboji

The purpose of the retreat is Koinonia, to enjoy community and communion with other Christians; To give time and space for those who would like to gather in a relaxed atmosphere.

This retreat will include:

- Reflection on Koinonia in the new normal
 - Participatory worship
 - Hymn Singing
- Connecting & Reconnecting
- Introducing or Reintroducing folks to "Their place at the lake"
- Sitting on the deck (and dock)
 - Bonfires
- Enjoying the lake region after crowds have gone home
- Pontoon or Hayride weather depending.

Meet Dave & Sue Feltman

Sue is recently retired from Cedar Heights Community Presbyterian Church in Cedar Falls. A graduate of Buena Vista University she has served as choral director for middle and high school choirs, accompanying choirs, playing organ, youth choirs and bells choirs from Iowa to New Jersey and back again.

She has accompanied students at UNI and the Ecumenical Sonshine Singers in Fort Dodge. She is known for her dedication to quality music and the hard work it takes to get there. Her life and ministry include a depth of faith and a pastoral touch of caring.

In retirement you will find her in the garden!

Rev. David Feltman also graduated from Buena Vista University, earned a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary and was ordained at First Presbyterian Church in Sibley, IA on June 24, 1979. He served parishes in New Providence, New Jersey, Luverne, Minnesota, and Fort Dodge, Iowa before becoming the Pastor to the Presbytery of North Central Iowa Presbytery.

He retired in 2019 and began serving as the Regional Representative for The Ministry Collaborative out of Atlanta, GA. He is a member of the Lakeshore Center Board and does pulpit supply. His hobbies include walking the Hound Dog and the small farm of his roots in Northwest Iowa.

Dave and Sue have been married for 45 years. They have 3 children, Peter in Oakland, CA; Sarah and Trey and their son Hudson in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; and Rachel and Jeremy in Norwood Young America, MN. They enjoy their acreage south of Waterloo and traveling.
